Secretary Message

As we all wait for the new academic year to begin, the decision to choose the right Institution becomes very crucial for many aspiring students. Some of the students do not have any idea of what course to pursue or which Institution to join. Some of the students are forced to choose what the parents like them to do.

Having said that, I believe this is the right time to stop for a moment, think and choose the right path to embark on... For those of you, who have chosen your course, and need help in identifying the right Institution...

I would like to suggest the following simple ways.

- The institutional core strength
- The infrastructure of the institution
- Achievements of the institution
- Placement track
- Role of the management

Modern religion be it Christianity, Hinduism, Islam – would rather insist on seeing a need and meeting the need with suitable action. In India, despite efforts at social and economic development since independence, a majority of our people continue to remain deprived of education which is the basic need for human development. Our government accords top priority to education – both as a human right and as a means of transformation towards a more humane and enlightened society.

Education, in a way is an industry – mass production of men and women of high morale and values. It is a great challenge for every institute, which join hands with the task.

Impelled by the social urge, encouraged by the lofty ideals, prompted by inner calling and motivated by self-will and determination, the C & D Educational Trust took up the challenge to contribute its share by catering to the educational needs of the people at the outskirts of Chennai, as early as in the year 1970.

ORIGIN & GROWTH

The year 1976, was marked by planting a tiny seed in education viz., Nazareth Nursery School with seven (7) children, at the outskirts of Chennai City, Avadi. The institute has grown up today into a huge banyan tree, offering educational shelter to more than 10700 students in the name and style of Nazareth Matriculation Higher Secondary School.

The C & D Educational Trust, develops, formulates and implements various activities that impart education with a deep sense of social upliftment and communal harmony.

NAZARETH COLLEGE OF EDUCATION FOR WOMEN

In the year 2006, the C & D Educational Trust, established a secondary teacher training institution, in the name and style of "Nazareth College of Education for Women", with a purpose to train teachers to perform with commitment to the noble profession of teaching.
